Call to Worship

L: Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

P: Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, and do not take your holy spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain in me a willing spirit. Amen

Scripture Lesson

Leviticus 16:6-10, 20-22

6 Aaron will offer the bull as a purification offering to make reconciliation for himself and his household. 7 He will take the two male goats and place them before the Lord at the meeting tent's entrance. 8 Aaron will cast lots over the two goats: one lot labeled "the Lord's" and the other lot labeled "Azazel's." 9 Aaron will present the goat selected by the Lord's lot and perform a purification offering with it. 10 But the goat selected by Azazel's lot will be left standing alive before the Lord in order to make reconciliation upon it by sending it away into the wilderness to Azazel.

20 When Aaron has finished reconciling the inner holy area, the rest of the meeting tent, and the altar, he will bring forward the live goat. 21 Aaron will press both his hands on its head and confess over it all the Israelites' offenses and all their rebellious sins, as well as all their other sins, putting all these on the goat's head. Then he will send it away into the wilderness with someone designated for the job. 22 The goat will carry on itself all their offenses to a desolate region, then the goat will be released into the wild.

The Lord's Prayer

Offering

Creator God, your Spirit surrounds and sustains us. As we offer these gifts, stir our quiet faith into confident witness. Replace our hesitant whispers with the courage to speak your truth. Shape our giving into acts of praise. We believe and pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Communion

L: Christ our Lord invites to his table all who want to know him, at this table he invites us to dedicate ourselves to follow his way as we earnestly repent of our sin and seek to live in peace with one another. Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

P: Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have failed to be an obedient church.
We have not done your will,
we have broken your commandments,
we have rebelled against your love,
we have not loved our neighbors,
and we have not heard the cry of the needy.
Forgive us, we pray.
Free us for joyful obedience,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

L: There is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who laid down his life so that all people might truly live.
This saying is sure and worthy of acceptance, that Jesus the Christ came into the world to save those who had turned away from God, and was manifested in the flesh, vindicated in the Spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, trusted throughout the world, and taken up in glory. Great indeed is the mystery of the Gospel.

P: We are not alone, we live in God's world.
We believe in God:
who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit.
We trust in God.
We are called to be the Church:
to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.
